- A COOLER PERMANENT
- THE BEST PERMANENT IRRESPECTIVE OF PRICE

MADAME THIBAUT says: "This marvellous and incredible new Prot-N-ized Cream Process is the greatest advancement in 25 years. It gives a really natural permanent not only to normal hair, but also to overbleached, dyed, weakened unresponsive and all difficult textures. This is so because creamy oils are driven into the hair, the wave so obtained is softer, more natural; curls are closer to the head and the hair is actually reconditioned. Important, too, is the longer life of the Prot-N-ized permanent."

PROGRAMME

- A. OVERTURE. “Some Old Favorites” by the Orchestra.
- B. BULL AND BUSH PUBLIC HOUSE, LONDON. It's Saturday night, and the usual impromptu concert is being held in the “pub,” with the Landlord (Jack Smith) in the chair. The door on the right opens on to an alley connecting with the stage door of the MUSIC HALL. As the curtain rises, we find the patrons enjoying a sing-song, with the assistance of some of the chorus girls.
  1. The Potman (Jack McEwing) comes forward with “Knocked 'Em In The Old Kent Road.”
  2. Gracie Fraser obliges with a Gracie Fields number.
  3. Followed by Dick Trotter, who does one of Jack Prentice's favorites.
  4. The barmaid (Jessie Gamble) leaves her duties to give us one of Vesta Victoria's old standbys.

6. The Landlord starts to tell a story, but instead he sings, "Brown October Ale"—with the vocal support of Ernie Burrows, Brownie Grant, Herb Holland and Ed Wynne.
7. On her way to the Music Hall, Elsie Preston stops a minute to do "Little Black Cupid In The Moon" with her girl chorus.

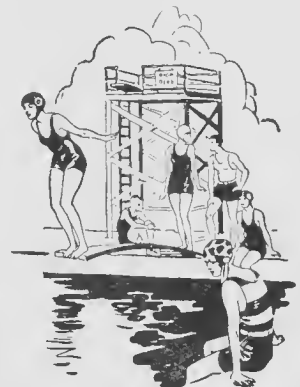

And then—it's time for "Let's All Go To The Music Hall."

C. OUTSIDE THE MUSIC HALL.

A late patron of the Bull and Bush, Joe Ellis is on his way somewhere, but needs a policeman to give him a hand. A "bobby," (Walter Luck) very kindly comes to his assistance.

No Music Hall programme would be complete without "The Blind Boy," the favorite number of that well-remembered star of former days, G. H. Chergwin, "The White Eyed Kaffir." Maurice Taylor, the newsboy, sings it.
